Action Taken Report on Feedback
2019-2020

From the analysis of the feedback report presented before the Principal and CLMC, the institution decided to take up the following actions with priority;

- The institute decided to initiate the process for the start of a Diploma course in Yoga and Logistics under the UGC Skill Development Scheme
- Approved the purchase of additional books based on requests from teachers and students
- Campus beautification efforts will be continued as part of aesthetic development
- Committed to install LAN facility throughout the campus to enhance technological advancement
- Decided to apply for new generation and integrated courses to expand academic offerings
- Initiated measures to obtain government concurrence for filling vacant teaching and non-teaching staff positions
