VEHICLE ON CAMPUS POLICY

A strategic plan is adopted in Devaswom Board College Thalayolaparambu to restrict the entry of vehicles inside the campus. This regulation is less stringent for employees and students who have physical impairments.

Statement of policy

Entry of vehicles is strictly restricted inside campus unless under emergency situations. Parking areas are provided at different parts of the campus for the safe parking of vehicles.

Objectives

- To reduce the chances of accidents inside the campus
- To promote the use of eco-friendly transportation
- To reduce atmospheric pollution from vehicular emissions

Implementation

- Temporary permission shall be given to guests/ visitors' for using vehicles in the campus.
- Emergency Vehicle Access ensures clear access for emergency vehicles at all times.
- Accessible Parking close to buildings are reserved for people with disabilities.

Responsibilities

Majority of students adopt public transport system for conveyance.

A security guard is appointed at the main entrance to restrict the entry of vehicles.

Regular review and update of the policy is done by the campus committee to ensure the needs of the campus community that complies with local regulations.
